

MISS SEETON READING LIST – Heron Carvic

Heron Carvic (21 January 1913 – 9 February 1980) was a British actor and writer who wrote the first five books featuring Miss Emily D. Ten years after Carvic's death, his books were re-issued in the U.S.A. and proved sufficiently popular for his Estate to commission further Miss Seeton stories from two other writers using pseudonyms with "HC" initials.

Miss Seeton Draws the Line (1969)

Miss Seeton's every attempt at a portrait of little Effie Goffer has become a chilling picture of a corpse. Is Miss Seeton actually drawing a clue to a series of child murders in rural England?

Witch Miss Seeton (1971) – also published as Miss Seeton, Bewitched

Miss Seeton gets pressed into the police's service yet again — this time in investigating a fishy-sounding New Age church and a rival devil-worshiping cult/witches' coven.

Miss Seeton Sings (1973)

Miss Seeton lands amidst a ruthless gang of European counterfeiters and killers--where a musical password has a very dangerous chorus.

Odds on Miss Seeton (1975)

Scotland Yard has disguised Miss Seeton as a high roller to get a police sketch of a mysterious crime boss.
